DAY 1 SINGAPORE – DELHI – KHIVA

Meals On Board/Dinner

Assemble at Singapore Changi Airport for your flight to Khiva via Delhi. Khiva is a UNESCO World Heritage Site and a treasure trove of ancient Silk Road tales.

DAY 2 KHIVA

Breakfast/Lunch/Dinner

After breakfast, step into the enchanting Itchan Kala, an inner fortress, in the Khorezm region, filled with Islamic architecture that dates from the 14th to the 19th century. Explore iconic landmarks such as Kunya-Ark Fortress and Kalta Minor.

DAY 3 KHIVA – BUKHARA

Breakfast/Lunch/Traditional Folklore Show Dinner

After breakfast, proceed to Bukhara passing through quaint villages. Tonight, enjoy a traditional folklore show dinner.
Note: The drive from Khiva to Bukhara is about 6 hours and roads might be bumpy; you may want to bring your own motion sickness medicine.

DAY 4 BUKHARA – SAMARKAND

Breakfast/Lunch/Dinner

This morning, embark on your city tour starting at Poi-Kalyan to capture grand shots of Kalyan Minaret and Kalyan Mosque. Explore the oldest structure in Bukhara, Ark Citadel, a fortress that houses a city with royal palaces, government offices, stables and libraries. Proceed to Bolo Hauz Mosque meaning "above the pool", renowned for its 40-pillar mosque beautifully reflected in the pond. Immerse yourself in the vibrant atmosphere of Trading Domes, the most extensive bazaar in Bukhara where you can purchase unique souvenirs crafted by local artisans. After lunch, board the high-speed train to UNESCO-listed Samarkand, a crossroad of cultures. As the evening sets, get your camera ready to capture the music and light show at Registan Square.

Note: Please prepare a day bag for your essentials as your luggage will be sent to Samarkand in the morning and will arrive in the evening.

DAY 5 SAMARKAND

Breakfast/Lunch/Dinner

Embark on today's journey by visiting the Gur-e-Amir Mausoleum. Gur-e-Amir, the final resting place of Amir Timur, a conqueror who dominated Central Asia in the late 14th century until his death in 1405. Thereafter, visit one of the most picturesque monuments of ancient history, Shakhi-Zinda memorial ensemble. The buildings are made of blue and turquoise tiles and are considered masterpieces of architecture. The necropolis is associated with the religious figure, Qusama Ibn Abbas, a cousin of the prophet Muhammad. Stroll through the heart of the city's social life, Registan Square, a showcase of intricate Islamic architecture and a prime example of urban development art in Central Asia. Next, enjoy an authentic shopping experience at the largest market in Samarkand, Siab Bazaar where a wide variety of spices, fresh breads, meats and local cuisines can be found. Explore the rich historical and cultural heritage as you visit Bibi Khanym. Named after the beloved wife of the commander, which translates to senior princess, the mosque was erected between 1399 to 1404 by the order of Amir Timur and holds the distinction of being the largest mosque in Central Asia.

DAY 6 SAMARKAND – TASHKENT

Breakfast/Lunch/Dinner

After breakfast, visit Eternal City, an 11-hectare site within Samarkand, recreating the history and traditions of Uzbekistan. Start your exploration with a boat ride allowing you to admire the architectural wonders and wander through streets adorned with houses and squares inspired by descriptions in ancient books, along with artisan shops. Thereafter, immerse yourself in a cultural experience at Konigil Village where you can partake in traditional costume dress-up and indulge in tea tasting. Here, you will also learn about local crafts like paper, pottery and oil making. In the evening, board the high-speed train to Tashkent.

Note: Please prepare a day bag for your essentials as your luggage will be sent to Tashkent in the morning and will arrive in the evening.

DAY 7 TASHKENT

Breakfast/Plov Lunch/ Get-Together Dinner

Prepare your camera for a day filled with visual wonders, beginning at Museum of Victims of Repressions. Then, proceed to make a photo-stop at another iconic landmark, Tashkent TV Tower, the largest broadcasting centre in Central Asia. Head to Besh Qozon for lunch, a popular spot to savour the local favourite dish, plov. Indulge in Uzbekistan's national dish, a delightful blend of rice, meat, vegetables and spices. Thereafter, immerse yourself in the vibrant atmosphere of Chorsu Bazaar, a bustling market where you can enjoy local shopping and explore various eateries. Tonight, enjoy a get-together dinner.

DAY 8 TASHKENT – SINGAPORE

Breakfast/Lunch/Dinner

This morning, take a leisure drive to Chimgan, a picturesque mountain range. Ascend to the summit with a chairlift ride, where the ever-changing views guarantee continuous opportunities to capture amazing photos. You may wish to enjoy a horseback ride at your own expense. After dinner, transfer to the airport for your flight home.
